De Soto

*F*oreword

The alphabet is a sign of education and progress. Just as the alphabet reminds one of progress, we sincerely hope that this DeSoto will be remindful of the first year of this decade on the Memphis State University campus. This was a year of growth in enrollment and buildings and in leadership with a larger faculty and a new president. May many pleasant and treasured memories of your days on this growing campus be revived through the 1961 DeSoto.

Dedication

We, the students of Memphis State University, dedicate the 1961 DeSoto to Dr. Cecil C. Humphreys, President of the University. Dr. Humphreys has loyally served Memphis State University for many years and in many ways such as Acting Director of the Graduate School, Assistant to the President, Athletic Director and Instructor in history. We are confident that with his youth, ability and enthusiasm Dr. Humphreys will lead Memphis State University to greater heights.

Greater Memphis State

The annual meeting of Greater Memphis State was held in October for all members and the administrative council. The organization has been working for local aid for the school and has requested state aid for expansion. Also they are trying to have WKNO television station located on campus. Walter P. Armstrong was named fourth educator of the year.

DR. WALTER SMITH, Director of School of Arts and Sciences

The major objective of the School of Arts and Sciences is to give to its students a well-rounded and liberal education. Therefore, it is the basic unit of the university because all of the other schools require some work in the School of Arts and Sciences.

Students who plan to do work in professional schools elsewhere may take the pre-professional course in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, law, engineering, and laboratory technique at Memphis State University.

Arts and Sciences

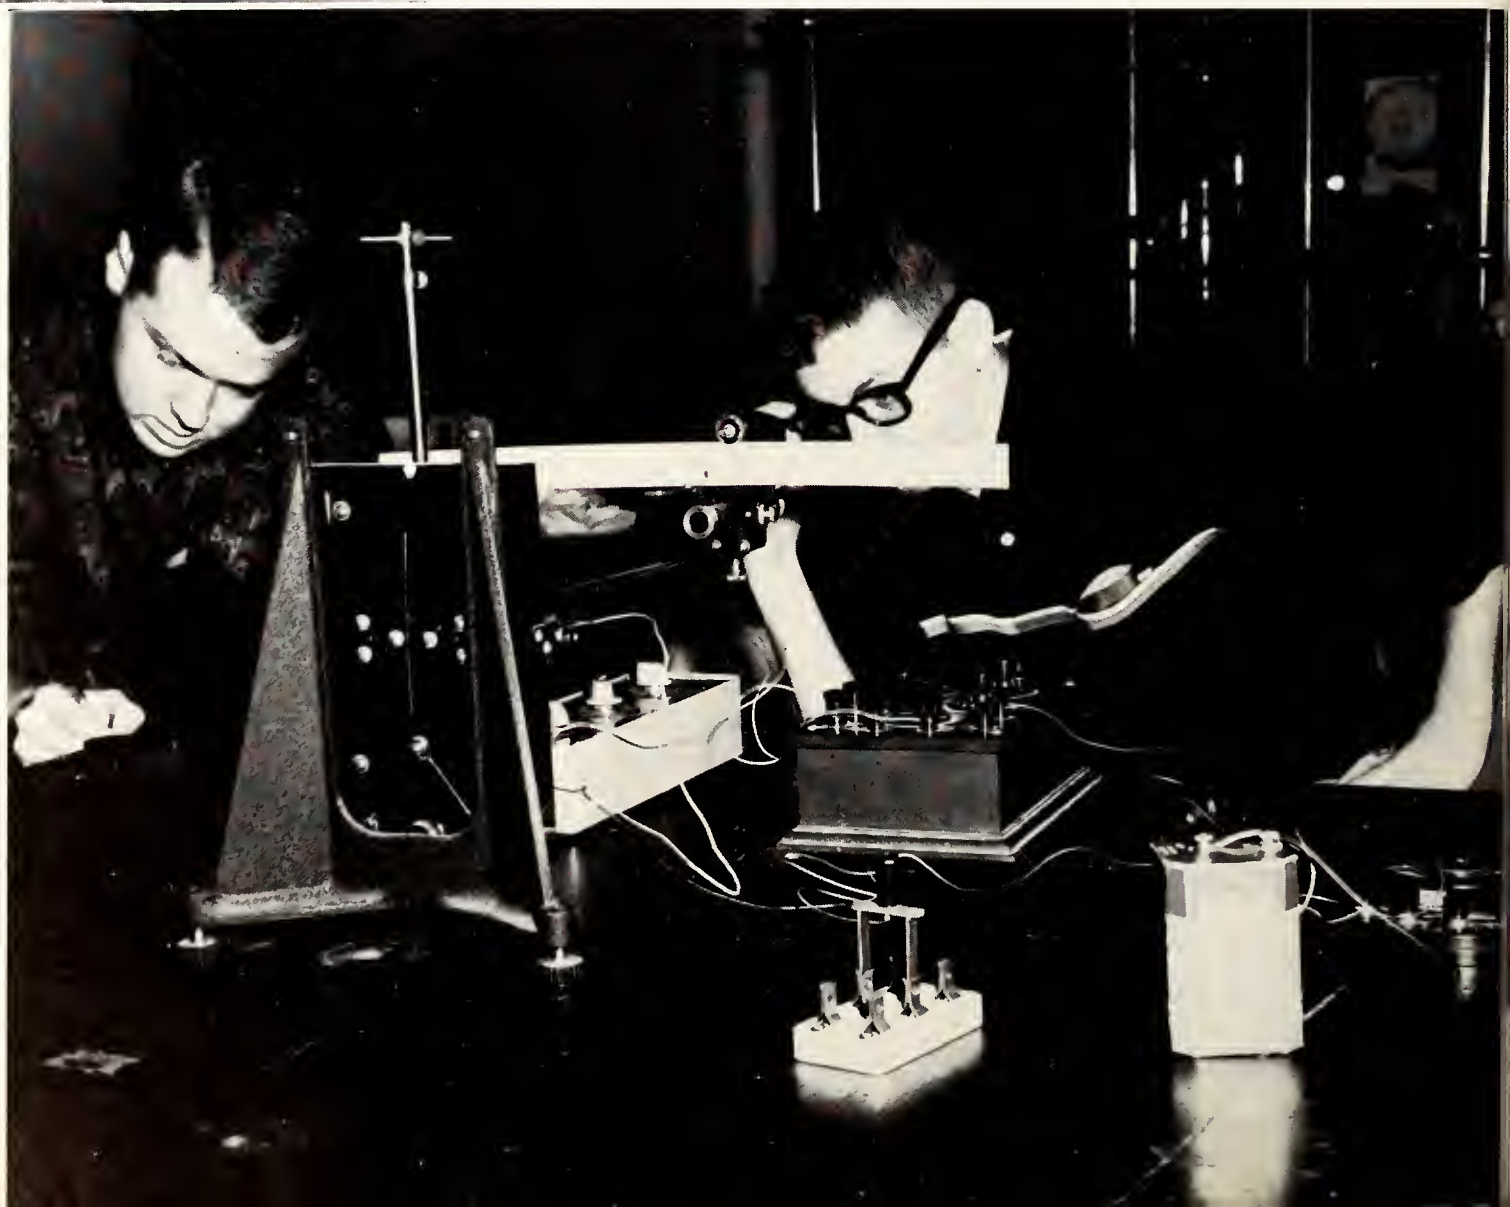

DR. W. P. CARSON retired this year as Director of the School of Arts and Sciences and is now a professor of English.

Business

The purposes of the School of Business are to provide a program of professional education at the university level which will prepare men and women to occupy positions of responsibility in business organizations or to operate businesses of their own successfully and efficiently and to train superior teachers of business subjects.

DR. H. E. RUMBLE, Director of School of Education

Education

The School of Education has the following objectives:

To recruit desirable candidates for the teaching profession on both the elementary and secondary levels.

To provide a program of teacher education which promotes the growth and development necessary for successful teaching.

To assist in placing teachers for future positions.

DR. C. M. STREET, Director of the Evening Division

Evening

The Evening Division was established to provide an undergraduate degree program for those who could not attend day classes. Courses are offered in the Schools of Business, Education, Arts and Sciences, and Industrial Arts.

Beginning this fall courses in history and mathematics were shown on Station WKNO television for college credit.

ARLINGTON STATE 0

Memphis, September 17—The Tigers opened the 1960 campaign with an impressive 35-0 victory over the Texans from Arlington State.

Quarterback James Earl Wright lived up to his pre-season billing, passing for one TD and running for two more, one an 82 yard jaunt through the middle of the Arlington State team. Junior end Don Coffey was on the receiving end of two scoring passes, one from Wright and one from Jack Carter. Jerry Reese scored on a pass and guard Bill Scott tackled one of the enemy in the end zone for a safety.

TENNESSEE TECH 6

Cookeville, Tenn., September 24—Memphis State, playing before a highly partisan crowd, rolled over Tennessee Tech, the Ohio Valley Conference champs.

The Tiger quarterbacks provided a potent scoring attack, featuring James Earl Wright. He passed for three touchdowns and ran another. Jack Carter kicked a field goal plus four conversions. Freshman Russell Vollmer scored the first 6 points of his collegiate career with a 35 yard dash. End Don Coffey and halfbacks John Griffin and Henry Rath also added to the Tiger's score.

OLE MISS 31

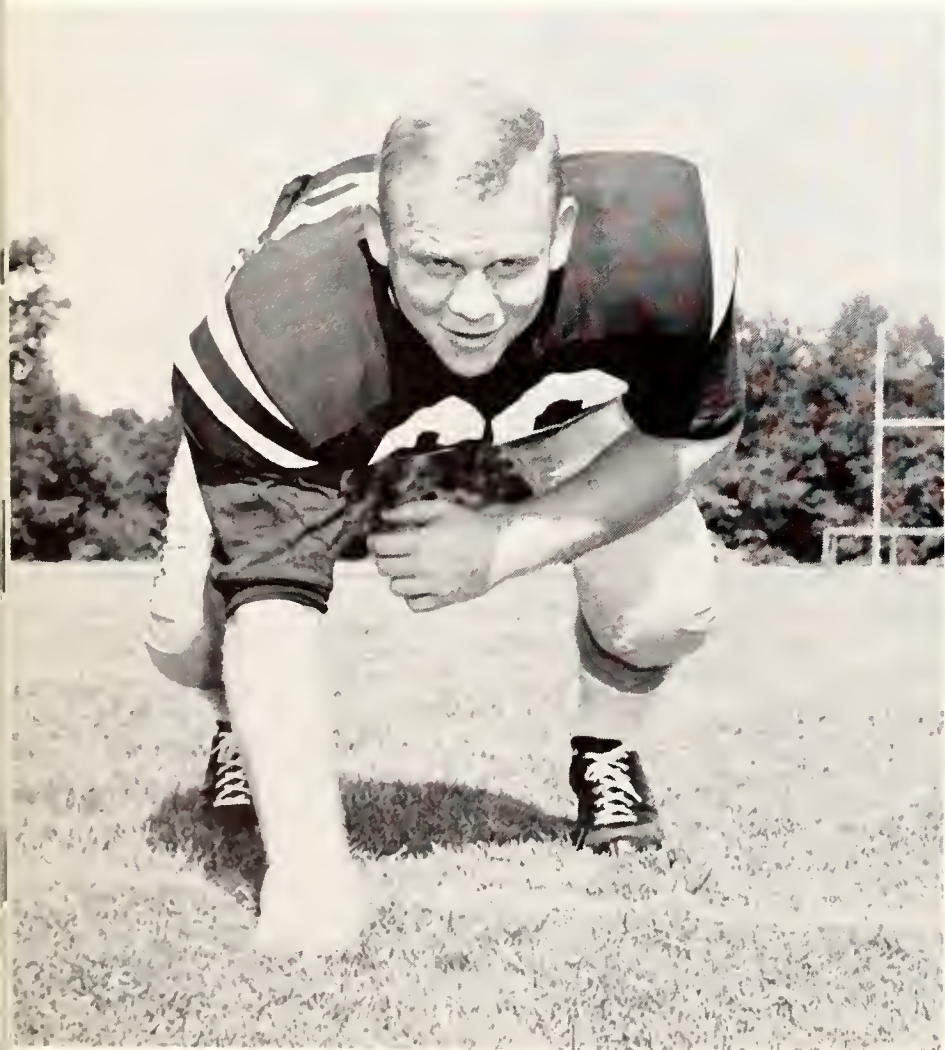

MSU 20

Memphis, October 1—The Memphis State Tigers, playing the finest game in their history, outplayed, outfought, and almost outscored the No. 1 ranked team in the nation, Ole Miss. A record crowd of 24,711 witnessed the running and passing duel of All-Americans Jake Gibbs and James Earl Wright.

On the first Ole Miss play from scrimmage, Tiger halfback John Griffin intercepted a Jake Gibbs pass and raced 23 yards to open the scoring. Ole Miss came right back with a 65 yard drive, Gibbs going over from the 6. The Tigers countered with a 15 yard pass from Wright to fullback Charles Killet. The Rebels struck back for two more touchdowns, and the score at halftime was Ole Miss 19—Memphis State 14.

The fired-up Tigers opened the second half scoring on a two yard plunge by Killet to regain the lead. This lead was held through the third quarter, but in the final period the freely substituting Rebels scored twice to end the Tiger's hopes.

That's far enough.

NORTH TEXAS STATE 0

Denton, Texas, October 8—Memphis State returned to the win column by thrashing North Texas State, the Missouri Valley champs, with freshman Sonny Parsons leading a crunching ground attack.

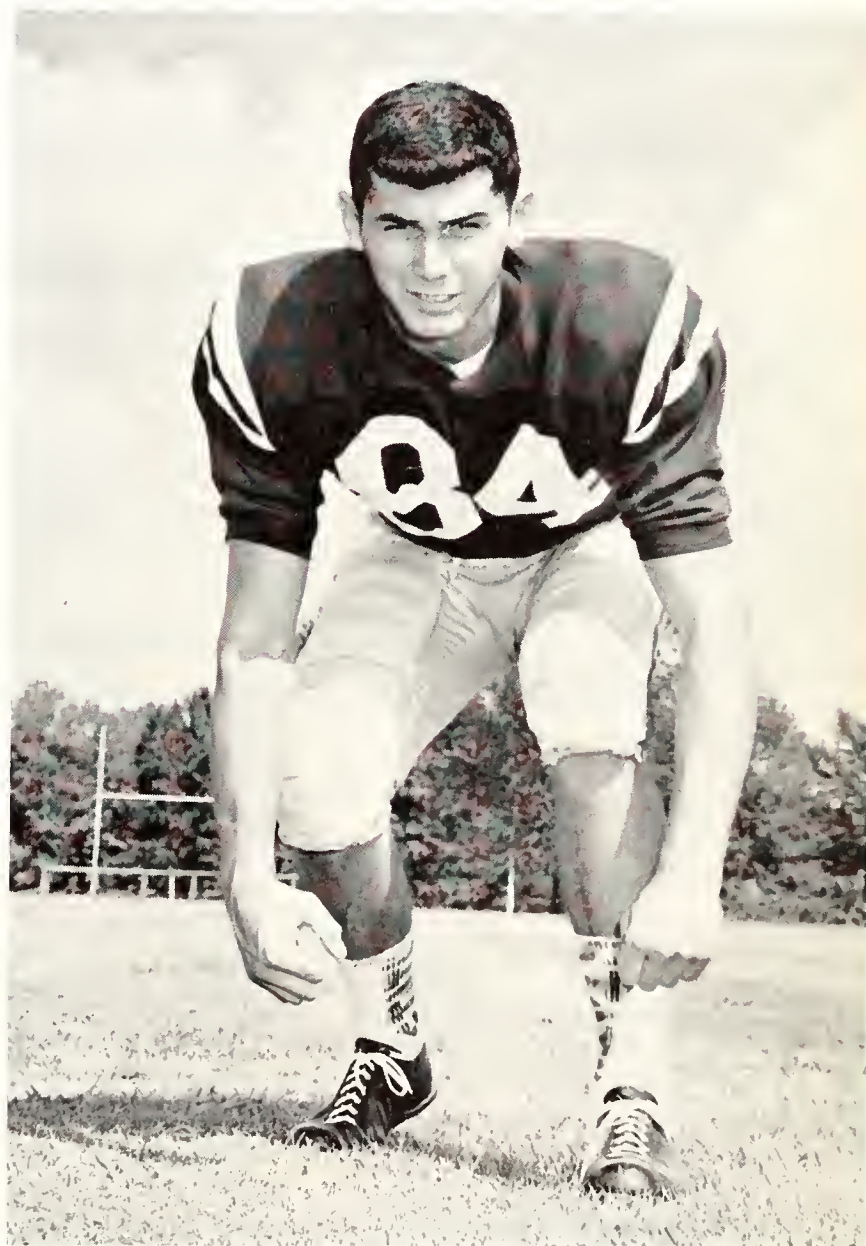

Once Again John Griffin opened the scoring with a 3 yard plunge. A 36 yard pass from James Earl Wright to Hal Sterling accounted for six more. The Tiger mainstays then gave way to the eager reserves and they continued with the scoring.

Ed Weldon intercepted a North Texas pass and ran 27 yards. Wright threw for the distance to end Dennis Biodrowski and fullback Paul Parrish rushed over from the one for the final touchdown.

HARDIN-SIMMONS 7

Memphis, October 15—Memphis State celebrated homecoming at the expense of Hardin-Simmons 42-7. The Tigers continued their domination of Texas teams as the Cowboys became the third Texas victim to fall to mighty Memphis State.

Halfback Sonny Parsons contributed a fine effort as he emerged the leading ground gainer. Parsons opened the scoring in the first period with a 19 yard dash, and scored the last touchdown of the game on a 65 yard run. James Earl Wright scored on one of the finest runs in Crump Stadium's history, and passed to Henry Rath for a TD. Halfbacks Jerry Reese and John Griffin added scores, and Jack Carter booted six extra points.

State's defense did an excellent job of stopping Cowboy quarterback "Hayseed" Stephens, the nation's number one passer in the final statistics.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 21

MSU 0

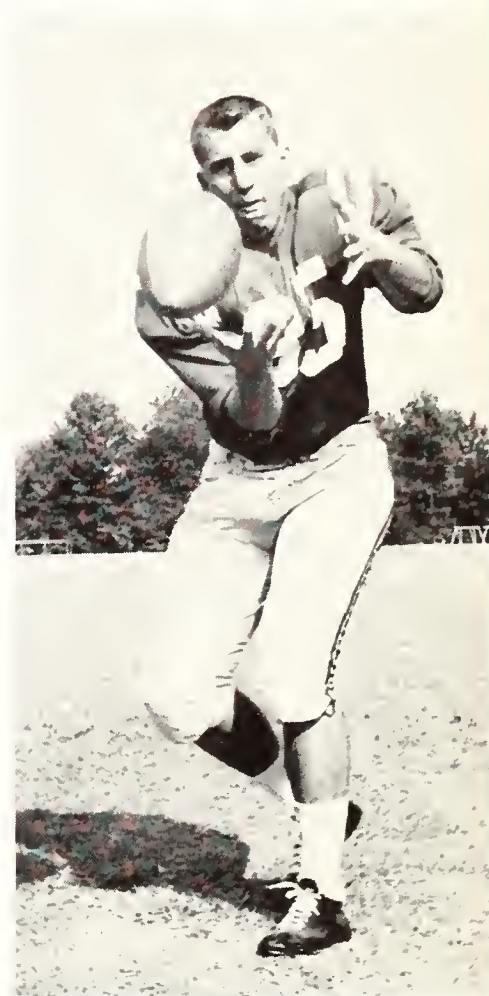

State College, Miss., October 22—The explosive Memphis State offense was contained for the first time this season by the unpenetrable Maroon defense. The first half ended in a scoreless tie.

Mississippi State, lead by Mackie Weaver, came roaring back in the second half to score three times. The bright spot for Memphis State was the bull-like rushes of freshman Charlie Killet, who was the game's leading ground gainer.

VIRGINIA MILITARY 8

Memphis, October 29—Memphis State returned to the friendly confines of Crump Stadium for a 21-8 victory over Southern Conference power Virginia Military Institute. The rainsoaked field kept the Tigers from using their vaunted passing attack; however, their powerful ground game proved sufficient.

The leading ground gainers were Charlie Killet and James Earl Wright. Killet scored the first two touchdowns, and Wright directed the team with his usual precision. Jack Carter ended the Tiger scoring with a 25 yard end sweep. Late in the fourth quarter the Keydets punched over for their 8 points.

ABILENE CHRISTIAN 6

Memphis, November 5—The Tigers continued their mastery of Texas teams with an overwhelming offensive demonstration against Abilene Christian. James Earl Wright threw for three touchdowns, hitting Henry Rath, John Griffin, and Hal Sterling. The unstoppable Wright also ran for one. Jerry Reese scored twice, and Sonny Parsons and Dave Casinelli each accounted for scores.

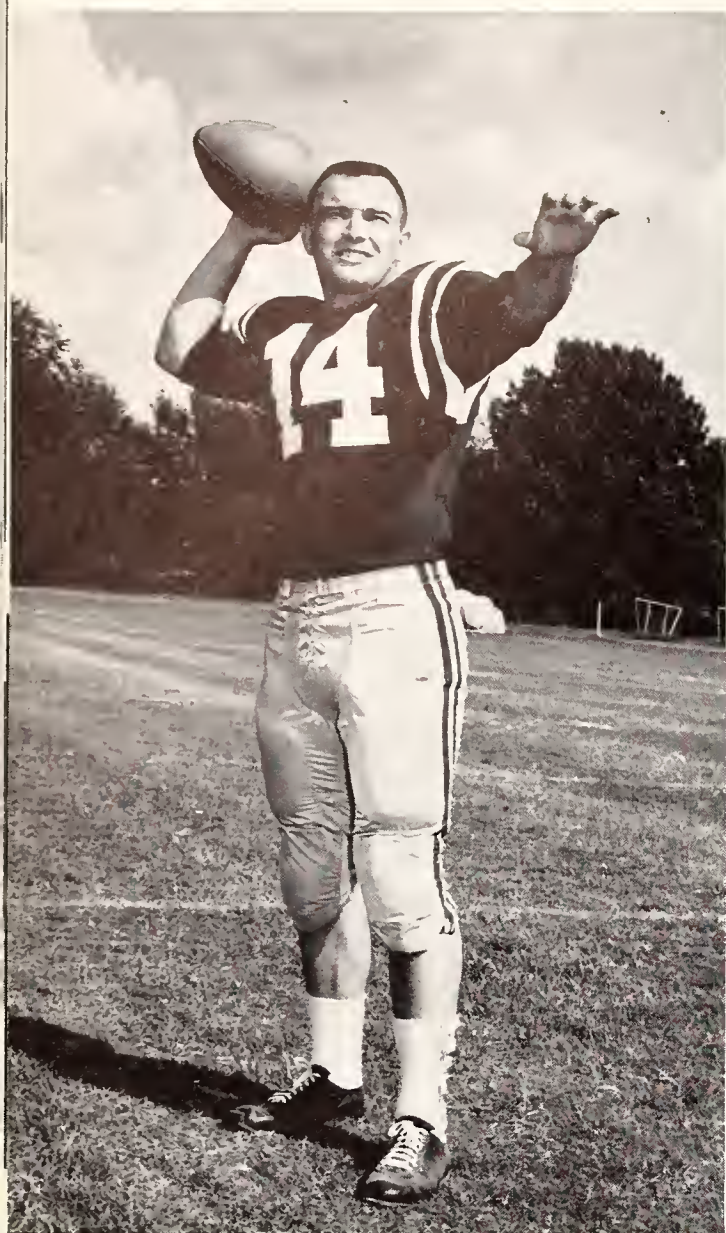

This tremendous point production was a season's high for the mighty Tiger offense.

CHATTANOOGA 0

Memphis, November 12—Memphis State handled the University of Chattanooga with ease, as the reserves played most of the game.

Quarterback Russell Vollmer showed a great deal of promise as he ran for two touchdowns and directed the team for most of the second half. James Earl Wright opened the scoring with a 29 yard pass to Don Coffey. Jack Carter, Dave Casinelli, and John Griffin all scored one touchdown, with Carter adding a field goal and two extra points.

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN 6

Hattiesburg, Miss., November 18—Memphis State ended one of the finest seasons in the schools' history with one of the season's most exciting games as they defeated Mississippi Southern 7-6. Southern scored first in the spirited struggle, but line backer Glenn Russell rushed through to spoil the extra point attempt. The stage was set as James Earl Wright, handicapped by broken ribs, orbited a pass to end Harold Sterling that went for an 82 yard touchdown. The ever-dependable toe of Jack Carter provided the margin of victory on the extra point kick.

MEMPHIS STATE 118

CALIFORNIA A&M 52

Memphis State opened the basketball season with an overwhelming 118-52 victory over the Aggies of California A&M. Wayne Yates led the way with 20 points and Frank Snyder hit 17 in a game that saw seven Tigers score in double figures.

MEMPHIS STATE 84

BAYLOR 58

The Tigers journeyed to Waco, Texas, for their second victory of the season as they snowed Baylor 84-58. 25 points by Skip Wolfe was a big factor in the defeat of the Bears. He was followed by Frank Snyder and Hunter Beckman with 14 each.

MEMPHIS STATE 102

NORTH TEXAS STATE 56

The powerful Tigers rolled up the century mark for the second time in three games as they defeated North Texas State, a member of the basketball powerful Missouri Valley Conference. Phil Kibbey and Frank Snyder had 16 points and center Wayne Yates chipped in 13.

WAYNE YATES, Center

MEMPHIS STATE 86 SEATTLE 81

Memphis State ended a successful Western road trip as they outscored Seattle 86-81, and kept their winning record intact. Wayne Yater continued to clear the boards and pop the nets as he garnered 20 points. Guards Skip Wolfe and Gene Wilfong, two of the finest backcourt men in the country, hawked the ball all night and scored 15 points each.

Tiger's famous fast break.

The basket counts!

MEMPHIS STATE 75 BRIGHAM YOUNG 72

Big boys Wayne Yates and Frank Snyder handled the scoring chores with 22 and 21 points respectively in a thrilling 75-72 victory over Brigham Young. Snyder fouled out after playing a tremendous game, but Yates continued to clear the boards as the entire team put out a great effort in overcoming the game Cougars on their home court.

MEMPHIS STATE 77 MONTANA STATE 50

A well-balanced scoring attack, which saw four starters in double figures, proved enough to overcome pesky Montana State 77-50. Memphis State held a slim 26-23 margin at mid-point, but roared back with a great second half to erase all Bobcat hopes of ending the Tigers win streak. Yates and Wolfe hit 15 each and Frank Snyder and Phil Kibbey added 11 each.

FRANK SNYDER, Forward

MEMPHIS STATE 95

WESTERN KENTUCKY 74

The Tigers coined a 95-74 win over Western Kentucky in the opening round of the Sugar Bowl Classic. Memphis State once again resorted to an explosive second half after holding a slight 41-37 lead at the half. Wayne Yates scored 29 points and forwards Lowery Kirk and Frand Snyder 20 and 14.

Horton scores.

MEMPHIS STATE 82

WEST VIRGINIA 86

West Virginia handed the Tigers their first taste of defeat by a score of 86-82. Despite holding a slim halftime lead, the Tigers were forced into overtime and eventual defeat in the final game of the Sugar Bowl Tournament in New Orleans. Lee Petrone was the big man for the Mountaineers with 33 points. Center Wayne Yates and guard Skip Wolfe received the honor of being placed on the All-Tournament team.

Go in for . . .

HUNTER BECKMAN, Forward

MEMPHIS STATE 72

MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN 55

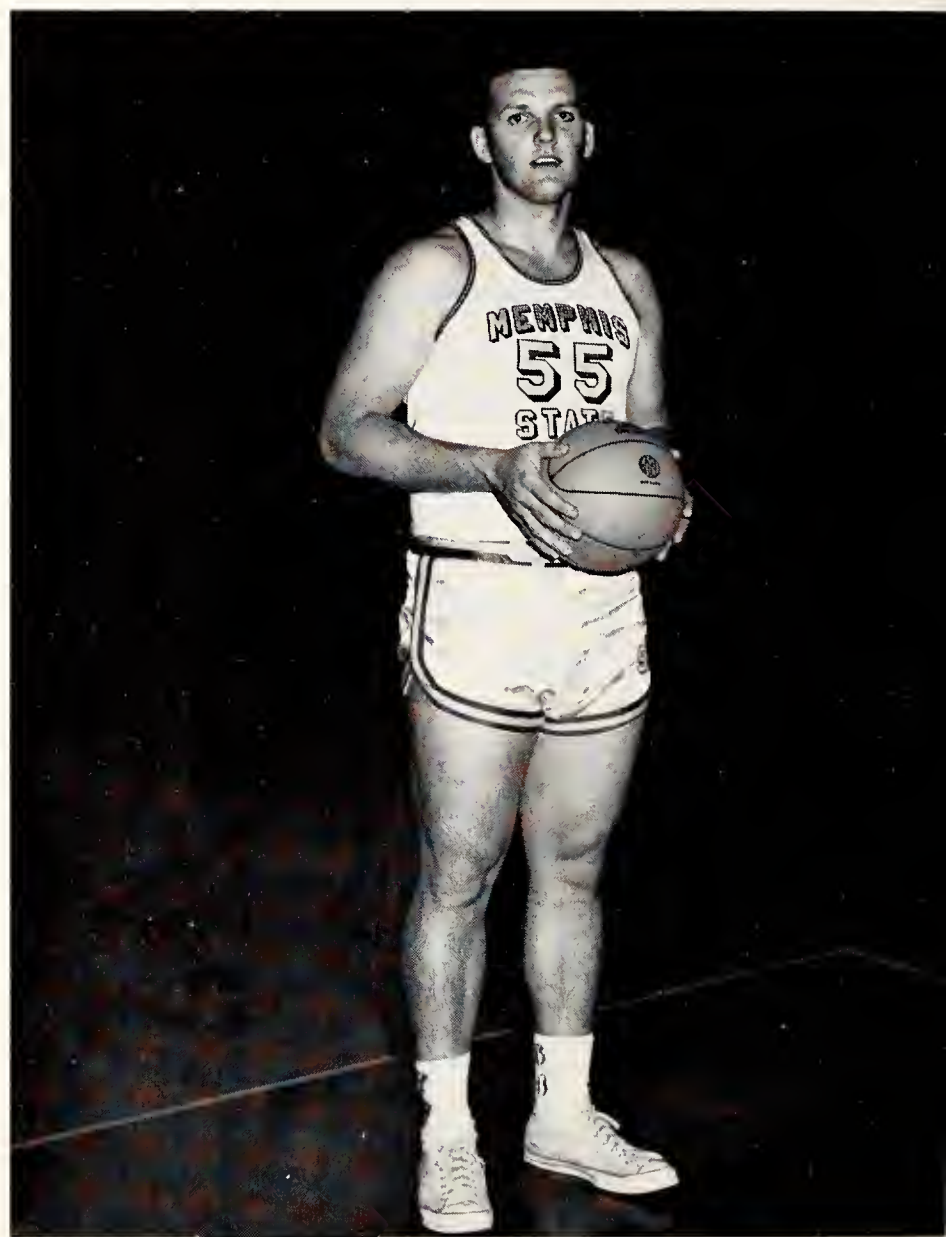

Memphis State ended Mississippi Southern's eleven game winning streak 72-55. It was the first loss of the season for the visitors who rank among the top small college teams in the nation. It was a tight game the first half, but Memphis State, currently the highest scoring team, came back for a fine second half. Wayne Yates scored his season's high of 26 points and Gene Wilfong got 21.

MEMPHIS STATE 85 NORTHEAST LOUISIANA STATE 58

The entire Tiger team saw action in a game that saw Memphis State topple Northeast Louisiana 85-58. The Tigers made mistakes throughout the game, but still proved far superior to the Louisiana visitors in every phase of the game. Big Wayne Yates again provided the big scoring punch with 26 points. Lowery Kirk added 18 and Frank Synder 16.

I'll take it.

MEMPHIS STATE 54

LOYOLA 45

The locale of the Sugar Bowl Tourney proved more hospitable to the Tigers this time as they beat Loyola 54-45. Despite playing without high-scoring Larry Truck, Loyola provided a tough obstacle, but the Tigers showed too much class for the Wolfpack. Skip Wolfe had 14 points and Frank Synder 12 in a low scoring game.

JAMES HORTON, Guard

MEMPHIS STATE 70

MURRAY STATE 60

Memphis State encountered a defense almost as unpenetrable as its own, but an outburst in the final moments gave the Tigers a 70-60 triumph over Murray State. The heated rivalry between the Tigers and the Thoroughbreds provided an exciting and well played game. Skip Wolfe accounted for 27 points, most of them coming in the second half.

The ball goes in the basket, boys!

Pardon me, may I score?

MEMPHIS STATE 96

LOUISIANA COLLEGE 39

Memphis State combined an awesome offense with a sparkling defense as Louisiana College became the Tiger's twelfth victim in 13 games. An outstanding rebound advantage and an unstoppable fast break further confounded the Louisiana quintet. Skip Wolfe set the scoring pace with 19. Close behind were Yates with 18 and Kirk and Synder with 17. Fred Mangum filled in for the injured Gene Wilfong with a fine performance.

FRED MANGUM, Guard

MEMPHIS STATE 88

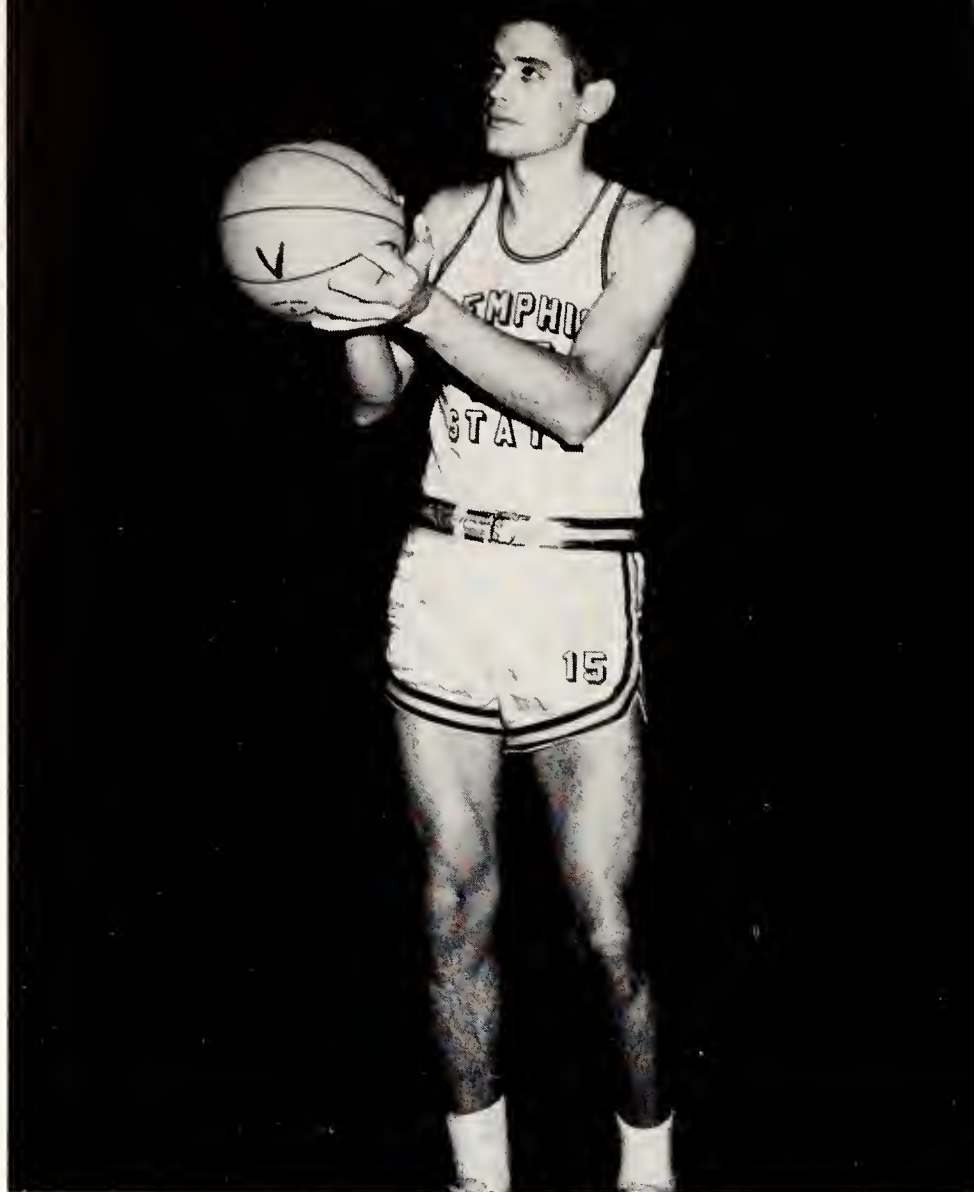

OLE MISS 61

An outstanding second half by the Tigers proved necessary as they routed Ole Miss 88-61. The Tigers held a narrow 38-36 lead at intermission, but followed with a 50 point second half. Forward Lowery Kirk scored 20 points and Skip Wolfe 16. Wayne Yates grabbed 14 rebounds and got 11 points before leaving the game via the foul route. Frank Snyder also fouled out after getting 14 points.

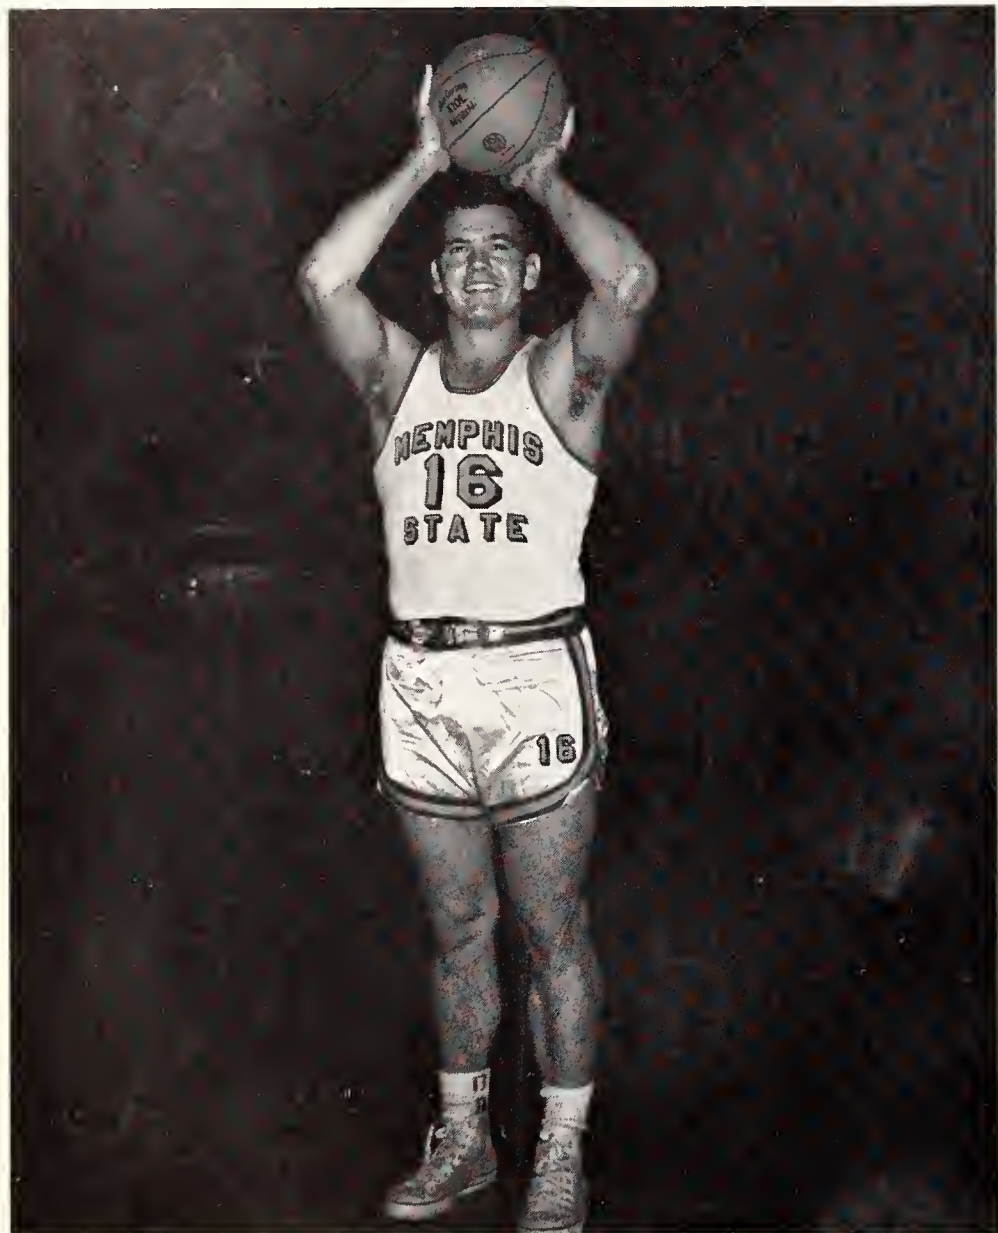

MEMPHIS STATE 83

TENNESSEE TECH 70

The fierce rivalry between Memphis State and Tennessee Tech was apparent as the Tigers claimed an 83-70 victory. The Tigers lost Wayne Yates and Frank Snyder on fouls, but a slowed offense by the Tigers was successful in crushing the Golden Eagles. Skip Wolfe set the pace with 24 points and Yates added 22. Lowery Kirk rebounded well and scored 15 points.

DICK LOWE, Center

TED LANE, Guard

MEMPHIS STATE 77

DAYTON 96

The Dayton Flyers handed Memphis State their second loss of the season and their first loss on their home court in 31 games. The Tigers appeared to have things in control after Dayton's high scoring Gary Roggenburk fouled out, but the Flyers had other ideas. Guard Bill Cramsey solved the Tiger defense as he connected for 32 points. The Tigers suddenly turned cold and Dayton seized this opportunity to pile up the score. Lowery Kirk contributed 19 points for the Tigers.

MEMPHIS STATE 104 RICHMOND 73

The Tigers celebrated their invitation to the National Invitational Tournament at the expense of the University of Richmond. For the fourth time of the season the Memphis State offense crashed the 100 mark. Accurate shooting and superior rebounding told the story as the Tigers penetrated every web the Spiders attempted to weave. Lowery Kirk gathered 20 and Frank Snyder 16 in the process of mounting the score.

That calls for another piece of gum.

Skip comes in from behind.

JIM INGOLD, Forward

MEMPHIS STATE 78

VILLANOVA 74

"The best team and the best player to perform in the Philadelphia area all season," the Philadelphia sportswriters said of Memphis State and Wayne Yates. The Tigers won their biggest game of the regular season by a score of 78-74. The big center, Yates, scored 25 points and claimed 23 rebounds. He had a great deal of help from Frank Snyder, with 16 points, Gene Wilfong with 15, and Lowery Kirk and Skip Wolfe 11.

LARRY GARBER, Guard

MEMPHIS STATE 81 MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE 61

There was never much doubt about the eventual outcome of this game as the Tigers kept a consistent lead throughout. This win gave Memphis State an 18-2 record, one of the best in the school's history. Gene Wilfong was the number one scorer for the event, scoring 19. Wayne Yates hit 17, Lowery Kirk and reserve Tom Jackson 13 each, and Frank Snyder 10 more.

MEMPHIS STATE 82

TENNESSEE TECH 73

The Golden Eagles of Tennessee Tech proved themselves a worthy adversary in a tight game played on the Tiger court. The Tigers could never seem to pull away from the pesky Eagles, but good all-around scoring proved sufficient for an 82-73 win. Wayne Yates continued his high scoring as he and Gene Wilfong got 17. Dependable Frank Snyder and Skip Wolfe each added 14 points. Tom Jackson turned in a fine game as he replaced Yates, who was plagued with fouls.

MEMPHIS STATE 85

LOYOLA 51

Memphis State ended the regular season with an 85-51 win over the Wolfpack of Loyola. The Tigers wasted no time in mounting a lead that was never endangered as they scored ten points before Loyola could find the range. Seven seniors on the squad marked their final appearance in Memorial Field House with a performance of merit. Lowery Kirk led with 21 points and Skip Wolfe countered 16. Big Wayne Yates, the leading scorer for the season, hit 14 points and held command of the back boards. This victory gave the Tigers an outstanding regular season record of 20 wins and only 2 losses.

Cross Country

The Memphis State harriers for the autumn of 1960 were extremely young, but very willing to run. The lack of experience in collegiate competition was made up in their desire. This is seen in the fact that Joel Laney, a freshman, broke the school record for the three and a half mile course with a time of 17:03. Joel also was the number one man on the team. This team was composed of one sophomore, which shows the youth of the team. After Laney came Jimmy Madden, the veteran of the team, Bobby Scanland, Roger Williams, and Richard Rottgering. The other freshmen were John Wilkinson and William Markings. The strength of these young Tigers shows a bright future for the thinclads.

Freshman Basketball

The Memphis State freshmen enjoyed a very successful season under Coach Joe Summers. A big factor in the young Tiger's success was their accurate shooting ability of 54%. Bob Neuman led the scoring with an average of 24 points per game. The leading rebounder was big Don Drewel. Outstanding ball handling was performed by guards Jerry Parrish and George Kirk. Kirk led the team in assists with his pin-point passing. Bob Baker, Paul Price, Tim Weaver, Jamie McMahan, Jim Skelton, and Roger Boyd rounded out the squad.

The success of these freshmen provides a bright future for Memphis State basketball.

Distance men are Bob Scanland, Joel Laney, Richard Rottgering, Freddy Maxey, Clyde Delaney, and John Cannon. The Tiger's strength in the field events will depend on Bob Lewis in the pole vault, Sam Reid in the broad jump, and David Salter in the Javelin. Big Tom Jackson and Bob Lewis are returning weight men, and Sturgis Daily leads the hurdlers. The Tigers have been very successful on the cinders in recent years, and this year's strong team appears to be no exception. Tough competition appears in several indoor invitational meets, and in meets with Mississippi State of the Southeastern Conference and Purdue and Northwestern of the Big Ten.

Back to help gain national recognition this year are two seniors, Walter Shirah and Ed Simmons. Junior Tommy Horton is expecting his best season, but the strength of the team lies in the hands of the lower classmen. John Schlee will be seeking first position after playing second and third last year as a freshman. Wayne Holsombeck will be trying for number one also. Freshmen Danny Gibson and Larry Campbell are expected to be strong contenders. Ray Clark, Mickey Brown, and John Pepin will also be seeking positions.

Panhellenic is an organization which is composed of representatives from the seven national sororities on campus. It is through Panhellenic that most of the regulations governing sororities are passed. Its main objective is to promote unity among all sorority women. Each sorority is represented by its president and two elected delegates.

The Interfraternity Council at Memphis State University is the governing body of the fraternity system. It is the duty of the IFC to carry out the wishes of all fraternities and act as a liaison between the fraternity system and the school administration.

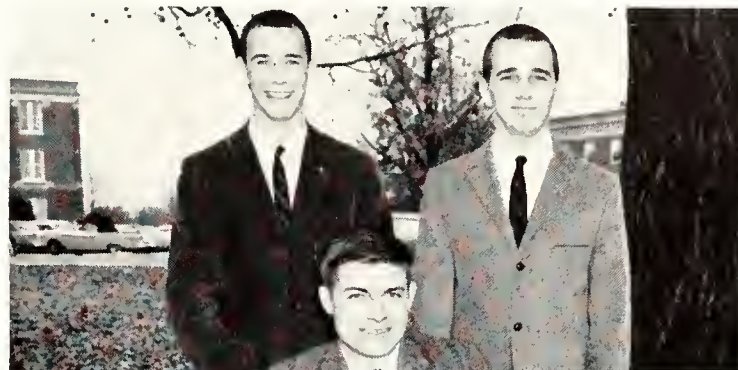

The IFC consists of three fraternity men from each fraternity plus an executive committee. The Council controls such activities as rush, scholarship awards, intramural activities and all other competitive functions.

Orchesis

The purpose of Orchesis is to provide students who are interested in dancing an opportunity to continue their study. Each year they present a dance recital at May Day.

The objective of the French Club, which was organized this year, is to promote interest in the language, culture, and inhabitants of France. The purpose is to meet periodically and, through movies, guest speakers, social functions, and programs, to further this interest.

La Riue Gauche

Cub Club

Religious Emphasis Week

Dr. Dietrich Ritschl, speaker at Religious Emphasis Week.

During Religious Emphasis week Memphis State students are challenged to take seriously the radical transformation of our world in the mid-twentieth century. This year the theme was "Challenges To Faith" and our speaker was Dr. Dietrich Ritschl.

Dr. Ritschl is Associate Professor of Historical Theology at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. Born in Switzerland, he has lived and taught in Scotland, Canada, Hungary and Czechoslovakia and is uniquely qualified to speak of the challenges to faith in the present world situation, as he has made it his special vocation to become a bridge for exchange of understanding between East and West.

Dormitory, faculty, sorority and fraternity seminars were among the many meetings held during this special week.

Morris Loskove presenting Mr. Milton Wray, faculty advisor, a gift for his outstanding services.
